There is a wonderfully empowering energy within this new single A Song Of Thanks (For Delome) by Louis Colaiannia that is so heart-warming to listen to, the mood raises the spirits to one of hope, from the depths of a past memory. Colaiannia utilizes a multi-instrumental approach to this new offering and it works brilliantly.

A Song Of Thanks (For Delome) is respectful soundtrack that tugs on the heart strings, and contains gentle, careful and delicate orchestrations that are so very sweet to listen too indeed. This is a fresh direction for the artist, but one that has been created with a tender touch on the keys and a spoonful of unconditional love along the way.
