I had felt the need to have my mood lifted and then I came across this single entitled Salut D'Amour (Love's Greeting) by Tim Neumark and it immediately had a positive effect on my energy. This is a delightfully light and fluent single and artistically beautiful to listen to as well.

Neumark's performance on piano here is sensationally blissful; he has created within this track a happy refrain, as the title would of course suggest, and one that has a little almost aged feel about its construction. We for example wouldn't find it too much of an exaggeration to feel that if we went back in a time machine to 19th century France, to see the artist performing this piece in a music hall somewhere in Paris.

This has to be one of the happiest and lovingly manifested singles I have heard for some time and completely enjoyable with every note played.
