The pleasure of listening to a new single or music from Kerry Barnes is always something to look forward to, the pianist has a wonderful talent for exploring musical narrative, but this time she includes the talents of singer Matthew Curtis in an operatic classically styled offering called Valse Romantica.

The energy on this piece is beautifully fluent and wonderfully warm in composition and arrangement, hearing the tones of the artist on such an empowering production is simply delightful.

Curtis has a voice that seems to fly from the recording and literally engages the listener with its charming narrative, whilst Barnes has such a sun kissed energy about her performance, that I can see it being very popular with the listenership and possibly a good chart hit as well.

Valse Romantica by Kerry Barnes will gift you a moment of musical magic that will lift your spirits and engage the emotions. This is single that has been produced with a real attention to detail, and a complete love of the art, for the creation of beautiful music.
